

OPEN BALLOT BOX OF CHARLEROI PRECINCT

Martin-Lewis Contest Merrily Proceeds at Washington

SMALL CHANGE THUS FAR

Count Shows Number of Votes Practically Same as First Announced

Charleroi figured in the Lewis-Martin prothonotary contest proceedings at Washington Friday, when the ballot box of the first precinct of the Magic City was opened. There was a large vote cast in this precinct, and the official count gave Lewis 162, Martin (D) 56, Martin (K) 29. The examiner's count gave Lewis 155, Martin (D) 50, Martin (K) 28. The official count gave the Socialist candidate 15, and the examiner's count gave him 14. Twenty contested ballots were laid aside.

In addition to the count of this precinct there were 25 ballots on which no votes were cast for either Lewis or Martin. In the box were three ballots marked with a double cross, which were among those laid aside and objected to by the respondent. There were 20 contested ballots altogether. Six ballots on which votes were cast for Martin were laid aside on account of erasures on the ballots.

A ballot on which there was a vote for Lewis was objected to by the petitioner on the grounds that a marking on the ballot was a "Y" instead of an "X." There was one straight Democratic ballot, with a vote for Martin, but the voter had marked in the body of a ballot an "X" for three councilmen. A Lewis vote was laid aside because of a defacement of the "X" after the vote for Boyd Parshall for register. Four Lewis ballots were laid aside on account of erasures. A Martin ballot was laid aside because of a blackened out "X" after one of the candidates. Three ballots in the box were declared void, having previously been so declared by the election board. One of these was cast by a voter who was in the wrong precinct. Two others were marked "improperly marked."

The ballot box from Finleyville was the first one opened Friday morning. This is one of the new improved steel boxes, and was in good condition. There were nine contested ballots. The official vote in Finleyville gives Lewis 66 votes, Martin (D) 15, and Martin (K) 4. The Socialist candidates received 7 votes. The count before the examiner Friday morning gives Lewis 64 votes, Martin (D) 15, and Martin (K) 6. The Socialist candidate received 8. There were 13 ballots on which no vote for prothonotary was cast.

The box from Peters, first, was next brought forth.

The official vote in Peters, first, gave Lewis 29, Martin (D) 42, Martin (K) 28 and the Socialist candidate one. The count before the examiner Friday morning, not taking into consideration ballots laid aside because of objections, showed the following: Lewis 26, Martin (D) 36, Martin (K) 24 and the Socialist candidate one. There were 19 ballots in which neither Lewis or Martin were voted for.

There were 14 contested ballots. The majority of these were objected

Want Man Of Names

Man Sent to Jail From Charleroi Said to Have Taken French Leave

Police over the country are looking for a man about five feet seven inches tall and stockily built who it is said recently evaded the clutch of officers of the jail at Washington and made good his escape. It was reported that he was in Charleroi Friday but no trace of him can be found. What his name is nobody, not even himself apparently knows. Some time ago the man was sent up by Justice of the Peace E. E. Rice of Charleroi for 60 days in jail on a charge of larceny of a robe. A few hours later 90 days was added to this sentence on a charge of larceny of an overcoat. The man went to jail under the name of Harry Brown. A couple of months previously he had served a term under the name of Harry Smith, being sent up from Charleroi.

to by counsel for Lewis, the respondent.

In Mount Pleasant, second, the official count was Lewis 15, Martin (D) 7, Martin (K) 13, the count before the examiner gave Lewis 14, Martin (D) 4, Martin (K) 10.

In addition to the count as shown above there were 12 ballots in which the voters did not vote for either Lewis or Martin. Counsel concerned agreed that where ballots were objected to on account of erasures they be laid aside and balanced before being entered as exhibits. There were three in this box, two for Martin and one for Lewis. The one Martin was traded for the one Lewis and the remaining Martin one entered as an exhibit and objection noted on the records. Altogether there were six contested ballots. The majority of these were ballots for Martin, which were voted either straight Keystone or Democrat.

After the Mount Pleasant first, box was counted, it was first decided not to count another box, but it was finally agreed to count a small precinct, and not hold a session this afternoon.

West Middletown was the last ballot box opened. The official count after the November election in that borough gave Lewis 33, Martin (D), 2, Martin (K) 24. The count before the examiner showed the following: Lewis 32, Martin (D) two, Martin (K) 24. There were four disputed ballots. There were two in which no vote was cast for either Lewis or Martin. Of the four contested ballots there arose the same question as arose in the Finleyville contested ballots. There was one where a voter voted a straight Democratic ticket and then a straight Keystone ticket. There was no Democrat ticket in the borough ticket, but a Keystone ticket. The others were laid aside on account of erasures and defacements.

PROSPECTIVE VICTIM THWARTS SHARPERS

Former Washington County Man Turns Tables on Supposed Confidence Men--Bentleyville Woman Helps Secure Arrest

It develops that Aaron Malakoff of Bentleyville, who was described in news dispatches from New York as being a victim of two alleged "green goods" men, to whom it is said he had given $500 for $3,000 worth of counterfeit money, was in reality an agent in the hands of the past police authorities when he helped to arrest Park Adams and John Smith of Philadelphia at Newark, N. J. The facts in the case are told in a letter received Friday by Aaron Malakoff's brother, Jacob Malakoff, a Bentleyville butcher.

On December 6, Aaron Malakoff received a letter forwarded from Bentleyville offering to sell him counterfeit $1, $5 and $10 bills, which it was asserted could not be detected from genuine money. Malakoff communicated with the postoffice authorities in New York, who asked him to become a decoy and Malakoff consented. Miss Young, postmistress at Bentleyville, was instructed to send a telegram to the address given in the letter, asking for further instructions.

These came along with a genuine $1 bill which the counterfeiters claimed was their production. Malakoff was instructed to appear at the Hotel Kensington, Newark, N. J., and register under an assumed name given him. This he did, proved his identity and was met by a confederate of the counterfeiters. The latter met him in a room at the hotel where Malakoff pretended to conduct negotiation looking toward the purchase of spurious money. Government secret service men forced the door of the room and arrested Adams Smith and Malakoff. Malakoff allowed himself to be arraigned as a blind and was then discharged.

PROSPEROUS YEAR IS ENDED BY BANK

STEAMER MAROONED AT LOCK

Slackwater and Crew Caught by Ice at Rices Landing

BUILDING COFFER DAM

Ice bound at Lock No. 6 the United States Steamer Slackwater from the North Charleroi government yard is lying in inactivity and its crew loafing, while the American Bridge company is "paying the freight." Engaged in the work of building a cofferdam at Lock No. 6 to be used in putting a big steel barge through the lock the steamer was caught when the river froze. The American Bridge company is taking the barge to Geneva for use in building a new bridge for the Monongahela Railroad.

The big barge is 200 feet long and 36 feet wide, or of too great dimensions to enable it to be locked through No. 6 and No. 7 without the use of the coffer dams. Hardly had the Slackwater and its crew been put to work on the first named lock than the river froze over locking it in an icy grasp and forcing a period of inactivity.

The new barge is to be used in place of piles temporarily in supporting pillars of the bridge. By this operation the cost of construction is greatly lessened. After the coffer dams are built at Locks No. 6 and No. 7 it will require a rise in the river before the barge can be locked through.

Meetings Attractive

Evangelistic Services Being Held at the Washington Avenue Church

The evangelistic services being held in the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church conducted by the pastor, Rev. John R. Burson have been well attended this week, although the weather has been very cold and the streets icy and dangerous. Each evening members of the session led in the discussion of the topics chosen for the Week of Prayer. There has also been a Bible Drill at each service participated in by the congregation. A large sign across the street, lit up by different colored electric lights, makes an attractive way of announcing the services. The meetings are increasing in interest, and the members are hopeful that much good may result from the services.

Coldest Weather in Dozen Years Experienced Today

SIXTEEN BELOW ZERO

Sudden Arrival of Cold Wave Brings Much Suffering-- Gas Pressure Low

Western Pennsylvania is today in the grip of the coldest weather it has experienced for 12 years. With the thermometers registering in various parts of the town anywhere from 14 degrees to 20 degrees below zero people are suffering keenly. The average temperature and probably about the nearest correct is 16 degrees below. Relief is promised Sunday in a warm wave that is now gathering force beyond the Mississippi.

Water pipes usually considered well protected from even the worst weather were found frozen up this morning and the arduous work of thawing them out was in order before breakfast could be gotten. Seemingly in league with the weather the gas with which many residents heat their homes was under low pressure.

Thus far no deaths or severe accidents from the cold have been reported. Train and trolley service is disconnected and it is difficult to maintain any certain schedule.

Friday night the weather man gave warning of the coming cold wave but didn't predict anything like the cold from which the people are now suffering. He said that the thermometers would probably go as low as five degrees below. At midnight thermometers registered about zero and the mercury dropped right along until early this morning about six o'clock when the minimum was reached. Since then there has been no great change.

The coldest weather since 1871 noted by the government temperature takers was on February 10, 1899, when as the people here remember the mercury crept to 20 degrees below zero. The following shows cold weather records of years previous to that time:

Six degrees below—December 10, 1876; January 5, 1884; February 6, 1895.
Seven degrees below—January 25, 1897; February 14, 1905.
Nine degrees below—December 30, 1880; February 11, 1885.
Twelve degrees below—January 10, 1875; January 3, 1879.
Twenty degrees below—February 10, 1899.

CHARLIES BEAT OUT BIG U'S

Home Basketballers Decorate Onions With Kibosh Sign

GAME CONCLUDES 35-31

With all the home boys stepping high the C's walked right over the alleged team from Onionville in pie fashion in a 35-31 mixup Friday night. When the Charlies had passed severe hob nail marks showed upon the countenances of the sickly lot of big U's.

It seems almost too sad to relate all the details of the horrible happening. The Onions put up an awful battle (awful is good) but against Jacky and his boys, well it was a repetition of the David-Goliath party of scriptural renown.

Father Andy can be blamed, he started it. That is he started the scoring by dropping in a foul. That's where he made a serious mistake, for it only served to get the Charleroi little 'uns on their mettle. Our own Jacky followed with a foul. O'Donnell playing pitch for Bill Powell went through a contortion act and tolled the bell. Captain Jack planted one in good soil, but what's the use telling it all. The first session passed away with the landscape embellished by the bright appearance of 19 runs for Charleroi against 14 for the Ourn bunch from you know where.

"Realizing that they were reduced to a frazzle (the name it and you can have it) team resorted to football and numerous other attacks from the rear" in the second half. The quotation is from the Union.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

Although the commissioners of Washington county have not yet so
far as known considered the appointment of an inspector of weights and
measures there seems to be a growing sentiment in many quarters for
such action. A number of counties
throughout the State are taking advantage of the new law passed by
the last Legislature which permits
the appointment of such an official.
The act passed by the recent session
bases the standards for the State on
the Federal standards and empowers
the commissioners of each county to appoint an inspector. The penalty for short weights or measures is a fine
of not more than $50 for the first offense, $200 for a second offense, and $100 fine and imprisonment for not less than thirty nor more than ninety
days for each subsequent offense.

While a county inspector can be-
come most useful and effective,
there are many who were in favor of
having the State make these inspections in connection with the pure
food inspections. The latter inspectors are not burdened with duties,
and could very easily oversee weights
and measures while making their rounds. However the county inspections are better than none, and it is hoped that the commissioners will install this most essential service at
an early day.

It always takes longer to install

One trouble about going early to the same thing.

Telling the usual American a thing

There wouldn't be any fun what-

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"Talk about women not having
enough intelligence to vote!" said a Charleroi citizen, who is an ardent advocate of Woman Suffrage, "if
they could not make a better stagger
at the effort than the men in this section, then I say God pity us all.
I've been an interested reader of the

proceedings in the Lewis-Martin
contest over the election for prothono-
tary now in progress at the county
seat, and the disclosures shown by
the recount of the contents of the
ballot boxes opened are really deplorable. The indifference and ignorance displayed by numerous voters in marking their ballots is a telling argument advanced by those who oppose direct rule of the people. It has been maintained since the
foundation of this government that
the people themselves are not to be trusted in voting directly for legislation, hence our representative form
of government. I have always been an ardent advocate of genuine democracy, but I confess that my confidence is somewhat shaken by the revelations of the recount at Washington of the ballot boxes opened.

"It strikes me that before we can
consistently ask for the referendum in this State we should first
learn how to vote. When voters do
not care enough about county affairs
to vote for the whole ticket of officials, how are they going to vote intelligently on questions of legislation? I'd rather trust the intelligence of the woman than that of the
man at the present time."

"Eighteen degrees below zero!"
announced Seward Might this morning to the early callers for papers at the Might news store.
"Gee whizz!" exclaimed Jay O. Bechtel, who just came in. "That's awful. I thought it was twelve or sixteen below, but I had no idea it
was eighteen!"

CHILDREN'S KIDNEYS

No Charleroi Mother Should Neglect
the Little One's Health.

Oftentimes weak kidneys cause
great annoyance and embarrassment
to children. Inability to control the kidney secretions, at night or while
at play, is attributed to carelessness
and too frequently the child is punished. Parents having children
troubled with kidney weakness would
do well to treat the kidneys with a tested and proven kidney remedy. If there is pain in the back, discolored
urine, irregular urination, headaches,
dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, begin giving Doan's Kidney Pills
at once. This remedy has been used in kidney troubles for over 75 years
—it has cured and has been recommended by thousands. Proof in a Charleroi citizen's statement.

Mrs. Robert Coulter, 207 Prospect Avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "Some
years ago my son contracted the
measles and on recovering, I noticed that his kidneys were very weak. He had no control over the passage of
the kidney secretions and this was especially annoying at night. I had often seen Doan's Kidney Pills highly advertised in the local papers and
was finally induced to procure a supply at Piper Bros. Drug Store.
I had my son use them according to
direction and before long he was greatly benefitted. He is still using Doan's Kidney Pills and I am certain
that a complete cure will soon be effected."

The Lamp That Saves The Eyes

Children naturally never think of possible strain on their eyesight when poring over a fascinating book.
It is up to you to see they do not ruin
their young eyes these long evenings
by reading under a poor light.
The Rayo Lamp is an insurance against eye troubles, alike for young and old.

The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but it is constructed on the soundest scientific principles, and there is not a better lamp made at any price.
It is easy on the eye because its light is so soft and white and widely diffused. And a Rayo Lamp never flickers.
Easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and rewick.
Solid brass throughout, with handsome nickel finish; also in many other styles and finishes.

Among the Theatres

THE PALACE-CHARLEROI.

Among the leading events of the Pathe Weekly at the Palace Theatre this week were events from Paris, France; Frankfort, Kentucky; Carbondale, Pa.; Havana, Cuba; New York City and Tripoli. The LeBargy-Malherbe Duel in Paris, in which the latter principal is wounded is shown. It is not often that Charleroi people can witness a real duel in which blood is shed, but the actual encounter was pictured. The inauguration of Governor McCreary of Kentucky is a leading scene in the Bulletin and the Italian-Turkish war showing the Italian camp sleeping, the artillery changing positions, and the Arabs who joined the Turkish cause and were shot after court martial. There were also other stirring events pictured. "A Mail Order Marriage" was one of the strong photoplays that was full of heart interest, and other films, one of which was "Scenes in the Alps" made a great repertoire for the week. "Driving Home the Cows," was a Civil War Drama, that pictured the side of the Lost Cause, the inspiration of which was no doubt the beautiful poem, of the title of the film, so familiar to the old-time school reader days.

THE STAR-CHARLEROI.

More great feature films at the Star Theatre this week added to the attractiveness of that popular house. Among these was "The Pride of Lexington," in two reels, "A Revolutionary Romance," "In the Days of the Six Nations," another two-reel picture showing the early Indian life of the Middle States particularly in New York and Pennsylvania, and "The Delhi Durbar," showing King George and Queen Mary's visit to their Indian Empire. In the comedy line were "The Co-Ed Professor," "Tweedledee's Riding Boots" and others, which furnished amusement, as well as entertainment. It was a great week at the Star.

THE GRAND-PITTSBURG

Vaudeville is putting on some airs these days. In the Grand's show this week starting Monday matinee, January 15, there will be given amongst a varied list of specialties an up-to-date morality sketch written by Peter G. Platti and entitled "Everybody." A comedy with a moral. The moral of it is that "everybody attains fortune only through work and honesty." Among the fourteen characters which Mr. Platti has created are

Everybody, Work, Honesty, Advice, Shirk, Future, Luck, Fortune and Pleasure.

Another interesting sketch in the program of the forthcoming week will be given by one of Pittsburgh's favorite sons, Gerald Griffin, a veteran portrayer of character who long years back was a vaudeville member of the old opera house stock company, three years ago became attached to the Harry Davis Stock company, and subsequently supported Wilton Lackaye in "The Battle." The cleverest girl monologist that vaudeville has ever had is undoubtedly Kate Watson who hails from the west. The Five Musical Girls will give a program of popular and classical selections played upon violin, trombone, cornet, piano and drum. Jarow, the most comical of magicians, will entertain with humorous sallies and slight-of-hand deception. Billy Sharp and Beatrice Turek are to offer a southern specialty, consisting of songs and dances. The Australian Wood Choppers will play the xylophone. A variety of other acts and a moving picture review showing events that are happening in various parts of the world complete the program for the forthcoming week.

THE ALVIN-PITTSBURG.

"Excuse Me", an expression representing laughter by the car load will be at the Alvin Theatre next week, starting Monday night, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday. For those to whom "Excuse Me" has only its old significance, which is an apology, it should be explained that its new character originated with the farce of that name written by Rupert Hughes, produced by Henry W. Savage for nine months a knock-out hit at the Gaiety Theatre, New York, for six months a whirlwind success at the Studebaker Theatre, Chicago, for four months a laughter-making record smasher at the Tremont Theatre in Boston.

The scene of the farce is an Overland Limited Express on a run across the continent. Pullman passengers and train crew are the characters, and the adventures of the trip fill the play with delightful comedy that makes laughter at every turn of the wheels. It is a train load of hilarity that runs at express speed and without stops.

Of course it is the unexpected and the surprises that make the fun in the farce. In "Excuse Me" for example

Frightful Polar Winds
blow with terrific force at the far north and play havoc with the skin causing red, rough or sore chapped hands and lips, that need Bucklen's Arnica Salve to heal them. It makes the skin soft and smooth. Unrivaled for cold-sores, also burns, boils, sores, ulcers, cuts, bruises and piles. Only 25 cents at W. F. Hennings.

HEED THE WARNING!

Backache is the Signal that Kidney Diseases are Nigh.

Who doesn't dread the advanced stages of kidney trouble—Bright's disease, dropsy and gravel.

But today, throughout America there are tens of thousands suffering the torments of hopeless agony just because they failed to heed the first signal, the certain warning of future misery—backache.

Backache means that your kidneys are weak.

Stop kidney disease at the start, that's the easiest way and Thompson's Barosma is the surest remedy. W. F. Hennings sells it, and is willing to guarantee it to stop backache, headache and sharp, shooting pains and to cure Bright's disease and any and all kidney, liver and bladder trouble, or money back.

It is a great maker of pure blood, and a builder of flesh, because it promptly cleans the kidneys and puts them in such perfect condition that the impurities are thoroughly strained from the blood as it passes through and are promptly eliminated with the urine. Thompson's Barosma is only 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

A Water Doctor Cured Her

"Twenty years I had suffered from a weak back and pain in my kidneys. At times I was laid up in bed and not able to bend my back. The doctors treated me for inward trouble but I kept getting weaker. Then dropsy set in and the urine became scanty and dark colored. My appetite failed, breath became short and eyes weak. I was told I had Bright's Disease and could not get well. Under Dr. Shaffer's treatment I was soon able to get out of bed and in a short time was cured. This was five years ago and I am still well."

The Biggest Purchase and Sale of Its Kind Ever Held in the United States

The stock of the B. White Co. department store (embracing 80 large departments), bought by us from the Receiver in Bankruptcy, will be placed on sale Monday, January 15, continuing until disposed of. The big B. White Co. department store opened last fall in a new eight story building at Ohio and Sandusky streets, Northside, Pittsburgh. Financial difficulties forced them into a receivership in a little over two months, resulting in the sale of the entire stock to us at a great sacrifice. town Morning Herald's description of a game there Thursday that is borrowed for use, serving the purpose to a T. Roughness didn't count much. Uniontown almost got a look in at one period when the score was 28 to 27 but they soon forget all their virtuous intentions of acquiring the lead. Big Bill Herron wafted a smile at Dame Fortune who of course with some effort of his own, graciously presented him with two baskets. Capt. Jack secured one. Without going into further details it may be remarked in conclusion that it was a fast game and was a deserved victory. Father Andy or Handy as your viewpoint may be, turned out a few specials for Uniontown and Boggio proved the prime favorite with that element termed luck, getting two of the freakiest baskets that were ever made. Capt.

Jack did the "bad money stunt—he turned up everywhere." Then besides it isn't too cruel to say it Dolin and Jimsey, and Allie and Herron were the best on-the-job-all-the-time men that ever graced this part of the Western Hemisphere. It would be difficult to pick individual stars for every man jack was one. Pfeiffer got in the lambasting affair just 24 seconds. Here is the way it looked:

Among The Passers

Connellsville planted themselves right in Johnstown's way last night and it was all off with the latter. But the combat took place on the Connellsville floor.

Jimsey Brown hasn't quite recovered from his sore foot, but last night he put up as pretty a game as you care to see. In the last 21 seconds of play after sustaining another injury in a collision he went out of the game.

Roach is proving himself a past master of the refereeing art.

Big Swede Swenson may be a star and all that but his tactics wouldn't make him a reputation as a drawing room entertainer.

Herron's man Swenson didn't get a taste of a field goal, while Big Bill got two. That shows, doesn't it?

Allie Brown was watched particularly close by Uniontown to see that he didn't get the ball for a shot. for at Uniontown they know his capability.

O'Donnell proved a very small fish compared with Dolin on center. Capt. Jack and Father Andy had it pretty hot but the stocky little Charleroi chief was always on hand to show the old man a few things. Pfeiffer was only about a half minute but he got the tough latter of the fight felt.....

OPEN BALLOT BOX OF CHARLEROI PRECINCT

Martin-Lewis Contest Merrily Proceeds at Washington

SMALL CHANGE THUS FAR

Count Shows Number of Votes Practically Same as First Announced

Charleroi figured in the Lewis-Martin prothonotary contest proceedings at Washington Friday, when the ballot box of the first precinct of the Magic City was opened. There was a large vote cast in this precinct, and the official count gave Lewis 162, Martin (D) 56, Martin (K) 29. The examiner's count gave Lewis 155, Martin (D) 50, Martin (K) 28. The official count gave the Socialist candidate 15, and the examiner's count gave him 14. Twenty contested ballots were laid aside.

In addition to the count of this precinct there were 25 ballots on which no votes were cast for either Lewis or Martin. In the box were three ballots marked with a double cross, which were among those laid aside and objected to by the respondent. There were 20 contested ballots altogether. Six ballots on which votes were cast for Martin were laid aside on account of erasures on the ballots.

A ballot on which there was a vote for Lewis was objected to by the petitioner on the grounds that a marking on the ballot was a "X" instead of an "X." There was one straight Democratic ballot, with a vote for Martin, but the voter had marked in the body of a ballot an "X" for three councilmen. A Lewis vote was laid aside because of a defacement of the "X" after the vote for Boyd Parrish for register. Four Lewis ballots were laid aside on account of erasures. A Martin ballot was laid aside because of a blackened out "X" after one of the candidates. Three ballots in the box were declared void, having previously been so declared by the election board. One of these was cast by a voter who was in the wrong precinct. Two others were marked "improperly marked."

The ballot box from Finleyville was the first one opened Friday morning. This is one of the new improved steel boxes, and was in good condition. There were nine contested ballots. The official vote in Finleyville gives Lewis 66 votes, Martin (D) 15, and Martin (K) 4. The Socialist candidates received 7 votes. The count before the examiner Friday morning gives Lewis 64 votes, Martin (D) 15, and Martin (K) 6. The Socialist candidate received 8. There were 13 ballots on which no vote for prothonotary was cast.

The box from Peters, first, was next brought forth.

The official vote in Peters, first, gave Lewis 29, Martin (D) 42, Martin (K) 28 and the Socialist candidate one. The count before the examiner Friday morning, not taking into consideration ballots laid aside because of objections, showed the following: Lewis 26, Martin (D) 36, Martin (K) 24 and the Socialist candidate one. There were 19 ballots in which neither Lewis or Martin were voted for.

There were 14 contested ballots. The majority of these were objected

Want Man Of Names

Man Sent to Jail From Charleroi Said to Have Taken French Leave

Police over the country are looking for a man about five feet seven inches tall and stockily built who it is said recently evaded the clutch of officers of the jail at Washington and made good his escape. It was reported that he was in Charleroi Friday but no trace of him can be found. What his name is nobody, not even himself apparently knows. Some time ago the man was sent up by Justice of the Peace E. E. Rice of Charleroi for 60 days in jail on a charge of larceny of a robe. A few hours later 90 days was added to this sentence on a charge of larceny of an overcoat. The man went to jail under the name of Harry Brown. A couple of months previously he had served a term under the name of Harry Smith, being sent up from Charleroi.

to by counsel for Lewis, the respondent.

In Mount Pleasant, second, the official count was Lewis 15, Martin (D) 7, Martin (K) 13, the count before the examiner gave Lewis 14, Martin (D) 4, Martin (K) 10.

In addition to the count as shown above there were 12 ballots in which the voters did not vote for either Lewis or Martin. Counsel concerned agreed that where ballots were objected to on account of erasures they be laid aside and balanced before being entered as exhibits. There were three in this box, two for Martin and one for Lewis. The one Martin was traded for the one Lewis and the remaining Martin one entered as an exhibit and objection noted on the records. Altogether there were six contested ballots. The majority of these were ballots for Martin, which were voted either straight Keystone or Democrat.

After the Mount Pleasant first, box was counted, it was first decided not to count another box, but it was finally agreed to count a small precinct, and not hold a session this afternoon.

West Middletown was the last ballot box opened. The official count after the November election in that borough gave Lewis 33, Martin (D), 2, Martin (K) 24. The count before the examiner showed the following: Lewis 32, Martin (D) two, Martin (K) 24. There were four disputed ballots. There were two in which no vote was cast for either Lewis or Martin. Of the four contested ballots there arose the same question as arose in the Finleyville contested ballots. There was one where a voter voted a straight Democratic ticket and then a straight Keystone ticket. There was no Democrat ticket in the borough ticket, but a Keystone ticket. The others were laid aside on account of erasures and defacements.

Company to Give Bail.

The independent military company at Belle Vernon will give its second annual ball at its armory on Friday evening, January 19. The committee in charge is composed of James Hassen, Edgar Riddle, Alfred Perry and Hugh Dunn.

PROSPECTIVE VICTIM THWARTS SHARPERS

Former Washington County Man Turns Tables on Supposed Confidence Men--Bentleyville Woman Helps Secure Arrest

It develops that Aaron Malakoff of Bentleyville, who was described in news dispatches from New York as being a victim of two alleged "green goods" men, to whom it is said he had given $500 for $3,000 worth of counterfeit money, was in reality an agent in the hands of the postoffice authorities when he helped to arrest Park Adams and John Smith of Philadelphia at Newark, N. J. The facts in the case are told in a letter received Friday by Aaron Malakoff's brother, Jacob Malakoff, a Bentleyville butcher.

On December 6, Aaron Malakoff received a letter forwarded from Bentleyville offering to sell him counterfeit $1, $5 and $10 bills, which it was asserted could not be detected from genuine money. Malakoff communicated with the postoffice authorities in New York, who asked him to become a decoy and Malakoff consented. Miss Young, postmistress at Bentleyville, was instructed to send a telegram to the address given in the letter, asking for further instructions.

These came along with a genuine $1 bill which the counterfeiters claimed was their production. Malakoff then instructed to appear at the Hotel Kensington, Newark, N. J., and register under an assumed name given him. This he did, proved his identity and was met by a confederate of the counterfeiters. The latter met him in a room at the hotel where Malakoff pretended to conduct negotiation looking toward the purchase of spurious money. Government secret service men forced the door of the room and arrested Adams Smith and Malakoff. Malakoff allowed himself to be arraigned as a blind and was then discharged.

Directors of Charleroi Savings and Trust Company Hold Meeting and Elect Officers for Ensuing Year

ing increased nearly $100,000. The earnings are considerably greater than at any previous year in the history of the institution.

STEAMER MAROONED AT LOCK

Slackwater and Crew Caught by Ice at Rices Landing

BUILDING COFFER DAM

Ice bound at Lock No. 6 the United States Steamer Slackwater from the North Charleroi government yard is lying in inactivity and its crew loafing, while the American Bridge company is "paying the freight." Engaged in the work of building a cofferdam at Lock No. 6 to be used in putting a big steel barge through the lock the steamer was caught when the river froze. The American Bridge company is taking the barge to Geneva for use in building a new bridge for the Monongahela Railroad.

The big barge is 200 feet long and 36 feet wide, or of too great dimensions to enable it to be locked through No. 6 and No. 7 without the use of the coffer dams. Hardly had the Slackwater and its crew been put to work on the first named lock than the river froze over locking it in an icy grasp and forcing a period of inactivity.

The new barge is to be used in place of piles temporarily in supporting pillars of the bridge. By this operation the cost of construction is greatly lessened. After the coffer dams are built at Locks No. 6 and No. 7 it will require a rise in the river before the barge can be locked through.

Meetings Attractive

Evangelistic Services Being Held at the Washington Avenue Church

The Washington Avenue Presbyterian church conducted by the pastor, Rev. John R. Burson have been well attended this week, although the weather has been very cold and the streets icy and dangerous. Each evening members of the session led in the discussion of the topics chosen for the Week of Prayer. There has also been a Bible Drill at each service participated in by the congregation. A large sign across the street, lit up by different colored electric lights, makes an attractive way of announcing the services. The meetings are increasing in interest, and the members are hopeful that much good may result from the services.

CHARLIES BEAT OUT BIG U'S

Home Basketballers Decorate Onions With Kibosh Sign

GAME CONCLUDES 35-31

With all the home boys stepping high the C's walked right over the alleged team from Onionville in pie fashion in a 35-31 mixup Friday night. When the Charlies had passed severe hob nail marks showed upon the countenances of the sickly lot of big U's.

It seems almost too sad to relate all the details of the horrible happening. The Onions put up an awful battle (awful is good) but against Jacky and his boys, well it was a repetition of the David-Goliath party of scriptural renown.

Father Andy can be blamed, he started it. That is he started the scoring by dropping in a foul. That's where he made a serious mistake, for it only served to get the Charleroi little 'uns on their mettle. Our own Jacky followed with a foul. O'Donnell playing pitch for Bill Powell went through a contortion act and tolled the bell. Captain Jack planted one in good soil, but what's the use telling it all. The first session passed away with the landscape embellished by the bright appearance of 19 runs for Charleroi against 14 for the Ourn bunch from you know where.

"Realizing that they were reduced to a frazzle (name it and you can have it) team resorted to football and numerous other attacks from the rear" in the second half. The quotation is from the Union-

Coldest Weather in Dozen Years Experienced Today

SIXTEEN BELO ZERO

Sudden Arrival of Cold Wave Brings Much Suffering-- Gas Pressure Low

Western Pennsylvania is today in the grip of the coldest weather it has experienced for 12 years. With the thermometers registering in various parts of the town anywhere from 14 degrees to 20 degrees below zero people are suffering keenly. The average temperature and probably about the nearest correct is 16 degrees below. Relief is promised Sunday in a warm wave that is now gathering force beyond the Mississippi.

Water pipes usually considered well protected from even the worst weather were found frozen up this morning and the arduous work of thawing them out was in order before breakfast could be gotten. Seemingly in league with the weather the gas with which many residents heat their homes was under low pressure.

Thus far no deaths or severe accidents from the cold have been reported. Train and trolley service is disconnected and it is difficult to maintain any certain schedule.

Friday night the weather man gave warning of the coming cold wave but didn't predict anything like the cold from which the people are now suffering. He said that the thermometers would probably go as low as five degrees below. At midnight thermometers registered about zero and the mercury dropped right along until early this morning about six o'clock when the minimum was reached. Since then there has been no great change.

The coldest weather since 1871 noted by the government temperature takers was on February 10, 1899, when as the people here remember the mercury crept to 20 degrees below zero. The following shows cold weather records of years previous to that time:

Six degrees below--December 10, 1876; January 5, 1884; February 6, 1895

Seven degrees below--January 25, 1897; February 14, 1905.

Nine degrees below--December 30, 1880; February 11, 1885.

Twelve degrees below--January 10, 1875; January 3, 1879.

Twenty degrees below--February 10, 1899.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

Although the commissioners of
Washington county have not yet so
far as known considered the appointment of an inspector of weights and
measures there seems to be a growing sentiment in many quarters for
such action. A number of counties
throughout the State are taking advantage of the new law passed by
the last Legislature which permits
the appointment of such an official.
The act passed by the recent session
bases the standards for the State on
the Federal standards and empowers
the commissioners of each county to appoint an inspector. The penalty for
short weights or measures is a fine
of not more than $50 for the first
offense, $200 for a second offense, and $100 fine and imprisonment for not
less than thirty nor more than ninety
days for each subsequent offense.

While a county inspector can be-
come most useful and effective,
there are many who were in favor of
having the State make these inspections in connection with the pure
food inspections. The latter inspectors are not burdened with duties,
and could very easily oversee weights
and measures while making their
rounds. However the county inspections are better than none, and it is
stall this most essential service at
an early day.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"Talk about women not having
enough intelligence to vote!" said a Charleroi citizen, who is an ardent
advocate of Woman Suffrage, "if
they could not make a better stagger
at the effort than the men in this
section, then I say God pity us all.
I've been an interested reader of the

proceedings in the Lewis-Martin
contest over the election for prothono-
tary now in progress at the county
seat, and the disclosures shown by
the recount of the contents of the
ballot boxes opened are really deplorable. The indifference and ignorance displayed by numerous voters in marking their ballots is a telling argument advanced by those who oppose direct rule of the people. It
has been maintained since the
foundation of this government that
the people themselves are not to be
trusted in voting directly for legislation, hence our representative form
of government. I have always been
an ardent advocate of genuine democracy, but I confess that my confidence is somewhat shaken by the revolutions of the recount at Washington of the ballot boxes opened.
"It strikes me that before we can
consistently ask for the referendum in this State we should first
learn how to vote. When voters do
not care enough about county affairs
to vote for the whole ticket of officials, how are they going to vote intelligently on questions of legislation? I'd rather trust the intelligence of the woman than that of the
man at the present time."

"Eighteen degrees below zero!"
announced Seward Micht this morning to the early callers for papers at the Micht news store.
"Gowbiz!" exclaimed Jay O. Beech-tel, who just came in. "That's awful. I thought it was twelve or
sixteen below, but I had no idea it
was eighteen!"

CHILDREN'S KIDNEYS

No Charleroi Mother Should Neglect
the Little One's Health.

Oftentimes weak kidneys cause
great annoyance and embarrassment
to children. Inability to control the
kidney secretions, at night or while
at play, is attributed to carelessness
and too frequently the child is punished. Parents having children
troubled with kidney weakness would
do well to treat the kidneys with a
tested and proven kidney remedy. If
there is pain in the back, discolored
urine, irregular urination, headaches,
dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, begin giving Doan's Kidney Pills
at once. This remedy has been used
in kidney troubles for over 75 years
—it has cured and has been recommended by thousands. Proof in a Charleroi citizen's statement.

Mrs. Robert Coulter, 207 Prospect
Avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "Some
years ago my son contracted the
measles and on recovering, I noticed
that his kidneys were very weak. He had no control over the passage of
the kidney secretions and this was
especially annoying at night. I had
often seen Doan's Kidney Pills highly
advertised in the local papers and
was finally induced to procure a
supply at Piper Bros., Drug Store.
I had my son use them according to
direction and before long he was greatly benefitted. He is still using Doan's Kidney Pills and I am certain
that a complete cure will soon be
effected."

The Lamp That Saves The Eyes

Children naturally never think of possible strain on their eyesight when poring over a fascinating book.

It is up to you to see they do not ruin their young eyes these long evenings by reading under a poor light.

The Rayo Lamp is an insurance against eye troubles, alike for young and old.

The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but it is constructed on the soundest scientific principles, and there is not a better lamp made at any price.

It is easy on the eye because its light is so soft and white and widely diffused. And a Rayo Lamp never flickers.

Easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and rewick. Solid brass throughout, with handsome nickel finish; also in many other styles and finishes.

Ask your dealer to show you his line of Rayo lamps; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of

Among the Theatres

THE PALACE—CHARLEROI.
Among the leading events of the Pathe Weekly at the Palace Theatre this week were events from Paris, France; Frankfort, Kentucky; Carbondale, Pa.; Havana, Cuba; New York City and Tripoli. The Le-Bargy-Madherbe Duel in Paris, in which the latter principal is wounded is shown. It is not often that Charleroi people can witness a real duel in which blood is shed, but the actual encounter was pictured. The inauguration of Governor McCreary of Kentucky is a leading scene in the Bulletin and the Italo-Turkish war showing the Italian camp sleeping, the artillery changing positions, and the Arabs who joined the Turkish cause and were shot after court-martial. There were also other stirring events pictured. "A Mail Order Marriage" was one of the strong photoplays that was full of heart interest, and other films, one of which was "Scenes in the Alps" made a great repertoire for the week. "Driving Home the Cows," was a Civil War Drama, that pictured the side of the Lost Cause, the inspiration of which was no doubt the beautiful poem, of the title of the film, so familiar to the old-time school reader days.

THE STAR—CHARLEROI.
More great feature films at the Star Theatre this week added to the attractiveness of that popular house. Among these was "The Pride of Lexington," in two reels, "A Revolutionary Romance," "In the Days of the Six Nations," another two-reel picture showing the early Indian life of the Middle States particularly in New York and Pennsylvania, and "The Delhi Durbar," showing King George and Queen Mary's visit to their Indian Empire. In the comedy line were "The Co-Ed Professor," "Tweedledee's Riding Boots" and others, which furnished amusement, as well as entertainment. It was a great week at the Star.

THE GRAND—PITTSBURG.
Vaudeville is putting on some airs these days. In the Grand's show this week starting Monday matinee, January 15, there will be given amongst a varied list of specialties an up-to-date morality sketch written by Peter G. Piatti and entitled "Everybody." A comedy with a moral. The moral of it is that "everybody attains fortune only through work and honesty." Among the fourteen characters which Mr. Piatti has created are Everybody, Work, Honesty, Advice, Shirk, Future, Luck, Fortune and Pleasure.

Another interesting sketch in the program of the forthcoming week will be given by one of Pittsburgh's favorite sons, Gerald Griffin, a veteran portrayer of character who long years back was a vaudeville member of the old opera house stock company, three years ago became attached to the Harry Davis Stock company, and subsequently supported Wilton Lackaye in "The Battle."

The cleverest girl monologist that vaudeville has ever had is undoubtedly Kate Watson who hails from the west. The Five Musical Girls will give a program of popular and classical selections played upon violin, trombone, cornet, piano and drum. Jarro, the most comical of magicians, will entertain with humorous sallies and slight-of-hand deception. Billy Sharp and Beatrice Turek are to offer a southern specialty, consisting of songs and dances. The Australian Wood Choppers will play the xylophone. A variety of other acts and a moving picture review showing events that are happening in various parts of the world complete the program for the forthcoming week.

THE ALVIN—PITTSBURG.
"Excuse Me," an expression representing laughter by the ear load will be at the Alvin Theatre next week, starting Monday night, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday. For those to whom "Excuse Me" has only its old significance, which is an apology, it should be explained that its new character originated with the farce of that name written by Rupert Hughes, produced by Henry W. Savage for nine months a knock-out hit at the Gaiety Theatre, New York, for six months a whirlwind success at the Studebaker Theatre, Chicago, for four months a laughter-making record smasher at the Tremont Theatre in Boston.

The scene of the farce is an Overland Limited Express on a run across the continent. Pullman passengers and train crew are the characters, and the adventures of the trip fill the play with delightful comedy that makes laughter at every turn of the wheels. It is a train load of hilarity that runs at express speed and without stops.

Of course it is the unexpected and the surprises that make the fun in the farce. In "Excuse Me" for example

Backache is the Signal that Kidney Diseases are Nigh.

Who doesn't dread the advanced stages of kidney trouble—Bright's disease, dropsy and gravel.

But today, throughout America there are tens of thousands suffering the torments of hopeless agony just because they failed to heed the first signal, the certain warning of future misery—backache.

Stop kidney disease at the start, that's the easiest way and Thompson's Barosma is the surest remedy. W. F. Hennings sells it, and is willing to guarantee it to stop backache, side-ache and sharp, shooting pains and to cure Bright's disease and any and all kidney, liver and bladder trouble, or money back.

A Water Doctor Cured Her

"For years I had suffered from a weak back and pain in my kidneys. At times I was laid up in bed and not able to bend my back. The doctors treated me for inward trouble but I kept getting weaker. Then dropsy set in and the urine became scanty and dark colored. My appetite failed, breath became short and eyes weak. I was told I had Bright's Disease and I was soon able to get out of bed and in a short time was cured. This was five years ago and I am still well."

Sale of B. White Co. Stock Starts Monday, January 15

The Biggest Purchase and Sale of Its Kind Ever Held in the United States

The stock of the B. White Co. department store (embracing 80 large departments), bought by us from the Receiver in Bankruptcy, will be placed on sale Monday, January 15, continuing until disposed of. The big B. White Co. department store opened last fall in a new eight story building at Ohio and Sandusky streets, Northside, Pittsburg. Financial difficulties forced them into a receivership in a little over two months, resulting in the sale of the entire stock to us at a great sacrifice. Therefore every bit of stock is absolutely new and fresh—a condition scarcely with a parallel, as most stocks thus purchased contain much merchandise that is old.

The Greatest Bargains Pittsburg Has Ever Seen

We shall make this sale one to be remembered for years because of its wonderful bargains. You will be amazed when you see them. It is impossible to give items in this advertisement, but the Pittsburg newspapers of Sunday, January 14, will contain a complete list. The B. White Co. Stock is so enormous that all cannot be placed on sale at one time. New lots will be brought out daily with fresh and pleasant surprises every minute.

The B. White Co. Stocks

consist of the following, all to be placed on sale at the most sensationally low prices in the history of Pittsburg

Art Needlework, Scarfs, Centers, Embroidery Materials, etc.
Corsets.
Women's, Misses' and Girls' Suits, Coats, Dresses, Waists, Kimonos, Sweater Coats, Raincoats, Skirts.
Dress Goods, Silks, Wash Goods, Linens, Domestic, Linings.
Furs—a splendid assortment.
Gloves for women, men, boys and girls.
Hosiery for men, women and children.

Infants' wear.
Jewelry, Cut Glass, Belts.
Men's and Boys' Furnishings.
Laces, Embroideries, Veilings, Trimmings, Braids.
Millinery, trimmed and untrimmed, millinery trimmings, ribbons, feathers, plumes, etc.

Notions.
Leather Goods, such as bags, suit cases, bill folds, etc.

Curtains, Draperies, Utility Boxes, etc.

Women's Neckwear.

Handkerchiefs.
Underwear, both muslin and knit for women and girls, and knit for men and boys.
Men's and Boys' Clothing—enormous stocks.
Toilet goods.

The Sale of the B. White Co. Furniture, Carpets, and Rugs will occur later, date of which will be announced in due time. Meanwhile, do not buy any furniture, carpets and rugs until our sale is held—values unheard of!

Among The Passers

Connellsville planted themselves right in Johnstown's way last night and it was all off with the latter. But the combat took place on the Connellsville floor.

Jimsey Brown hasn't quite recovered from his sore foot, but last night he put up as pretty a game as you care to see. In the last 24 seconds of play after sustaining another injury in a collision he went out of the game.

Roach is proving himself a past master of the refereeing art.

Big Swede Swenson may be a star and all that but his tactics wouldn't make him a drawing as a drawing room entertainer.

Herron's man Swenson didn't get a taste of a field goal, while Big Bill got two. That shows, doesn't it?

Allie Brown was watched particularly close by Uniontown to see that he didn't get the ball for a shot. For at Uniontown they know his capability.

town Morning Herald's description of a game there Thursday that is borrowed for use, serving the purpose to a T. Roughness didn't count much. Uniontown almost got a look in at one period when the score was 28 to 27 but they soon forget all their virtuous intentions of acquiring the lead. Big Bill Herron wafted a smile at Dame Fortune who of course with some effort of his own, graciously presented him with two baskets. Capt. Jack secured one.

Without going into further details it may be remarked in conclusion that it was a fast game and was a deserved victory. Father Andy or Handy as your viewpoint may be, turned out a few specials for Uniontown and Boggio proved the prime favorite with that element termed luck, getting two of the freakiest baskets that were ever made. Capt.

Jack did the "bad money stunt—he turned up everywhere." Then he sides it it isn't too cruel to say it Dolin and Jimsey, and Allie and Herron were the best on-the-job-all-the-time men that ever graced this part of the Western Hemisphere. It would be difficult to pick individual stars for every man jack was one. Pfeiffer got in the lambasting affair just 24 seconds. Here is the way it looked:
